Roger
Thank you, Joseph. Well ladies and gentlemen, the surprise Jo Jo was speaking of is hurricane tumble.
We've been predicting only light rain from the storm to hit our area; unfortunately, the storm has shifted directions and will be directly over our region within two hours. Wind gusts up to 100 m.p.h. are expected.
Make sure you let the cat back in tonight ...

Jason gets up from the couch.

Jason
(yelling)
Maggie!

Maggie comes into the living room.

Maggie
What's wrong, Jason?

Jason
The storm is shifting and it's headed our way. Where are the kids?

Maggie
Mike and Ben are upstairs, but Carol's still out on her date.

Jason
Well where did she go?

Maggie
She went to a movie. She should be home within the hour.

Jason
Are you sure she's coming straight home afterwards?

Maggie
Yes, Jason. Calm down. I know Carol. If she were going to go somewhere after the movie, I'd be the first to know.
